Item 1 - Introduction

The Perspective Group, LLC (CRD No. 175294) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Advisory services and fees are different from brokerage services and fees. It is important to understand the difference and carefully consider which account type and the services that are right for you. This document provides a summary of the types of services provided by The Perspective Group and the associated fees. In addition, free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which provides educational materials about broker/dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2 - Relationships & Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

The Perspective Group strives to meet (in-person, phone, video) with clients, no less than annually, to provide investment advice, develop strategies and define goals as well as regularly monitor investments as part of our standard services. Assets can be managed on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. Discretionary authority allows securities to be bought and sold without asking in advance and without material limitations whereas non-discretionary authority would require permission prior to each transaction. The Perspective Group receives compensation by charging a quarterly on-going asset management fee as disclosed in our ADV 2A. Advisory services are not limited to proprietary products or a limited menu of products. There is generally a $10,000 dollar amount required to open an account.

Conversation Starters: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 - Fees, Costs, Conflicts and Standard of Conduct

What Fees will I Pay?

Fees and costs affect the value of your account over time. The Perspective Group charges a quarterly management fee based on a percentage of assets under management, an annual flat fee or a project-based fee. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. The Perspective Group has a fiduciary duty to manage an account in a cost-effective manner and considers custodian fees, account maintenance fees, fees related to mutual funds (12b-1 fees) and variable annuities, and other transactional fees (ticket charges) and product-level fees when making investment recommendations. You are encouraged to learn more about LPL by reviewing LPL's Form CRS – Customer Relationship Summary and having a discussion with your Financial Professional. we are able to sell insurance commission compensation and the more you invest the more fees you pay. In a wrap fee program, the asset-based fee will include most transaction costs and fees to the broker/dealer or bank that will hold your assets (called “custody”) and as a result wrap fees are typically higher than non-wrap advisory fees. Although transaction fees are usually included in the wrap program fee, sometimes you will pay an additional transaction fee for an investment bought or sold outside the wrap fee program. Paying for a wrap fee program could cost more than separately paying for advice and for transactions if there are infrequent trades in your account. Investment advisor representatives may receive compensation from product sponsors. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational or training events or marketing or advertising initiatives.

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means. Some of our Financial Professionals are registered representatives of LPL Financial LLC (“LPL”), an SEC registered investment adviser and FINRA/SIPC member broker/dealer. Your Financial Professional can offer you brokerage services through LPL or investment advisory services through The Perspective Group. Brokerage services and investment advisory services are different, and the fees we, and LPL, charge for those services are different. It is important that you understand the differences. You can also access free and simple tools to help you research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/crs which provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing. You could also open a brokerage account with a broker/dealer, where you pay a transaction-based fee, generally referred to as a commission, when the broker/dealer buys or sells an investment for you. With a broker/dealer, you can select investments, or the broker/dealer may recommend investments for your account, but the ultimate decision to buy or sell will be yours. A broker/dealer must act in your best interest and not place its interests ahead of your interest when recommending an investment or an investment strategy involving securities. When a broker/dealer provides any service to you, the broker/dealer must treat you fairly and comply with a number of specific obligations. Unless you and the broker/dealer agree otherwise, the broker/dealer is not required to monitor your portfolio on an ongoing basis. If you were to pay a transaction-based fee in a brokerage account, the more trades in your account, the more fees the broker/dealer charges you. Consequently, the broker/dealer has an incentive to encourage you to trade often. The Perspective Group does not offer proprietary products, receive payments from third parties for investment advice, participate in a revenue sharing agreement or conduct principal trading. The more assets you have in an advisory account, the more you will pay us. We therefore have an incentive to grow the assets in your account to increase our advisory fees. Additional information about conflicts of interest are available in our ADV 2A.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Financial Professionals are compensated based on a percentage of assets under management. The percentage charged is based on the scope and complexity of your account, the amount of time and expertise required as well as the account value. Financial Professionals can also make money by providing financial plans or hourly consulting.

Conversation Starters: “Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me? How do conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?”

Item 4 - Disciplinary History

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No, The Perspective Group does not have any disciplinary history to disclose; however, we encourage you to visit Investor.gov/crs for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals. To report a problem to the SEC, visit Investor.gov/crs or call the SEC’s toll-free investor assistance line at (800) 732-0330.
